WHY DO THE REST? . . . WHEN BARSTOW'S THE BEST!

Miss Barstow Pageant Philosophy

Competing in a pageant should be a fun and rewarding experience for both the child and parent. It is an opportunity for the contestant to meet other contestants with similar interests, gain confidence, self-esteem, personal growth, development, and a feeling of accomplishment. A pageant should also teach sportsmanship and self-improvement. Although every contestant wins a trophy, sash & crown or tiara, our exclusive titles are earned by the contestant, helping to instill in them at an early age, the importance of perseverance and humility. For the parent, it's a chance to teach a healthy competitive attitude, build character, share in the child's accomplishments and success no matter the outcome. Any make-up for children should be extremely subtle. We want our titlists to learn the value of commitment and the importance of community service.
